

IN COLLABORATION WITH

*Paul V. Sherlock Center on Disabilities, Rhode Island College
RI Coalition of School Social Workers
RI National Association of Social Workers
RI Association of School Principals
RI Department of Education &
RI Middle Level Educators*

AN EVENING FORUM FOR FAMILIES & EDUCATORS

“Easing the Teasing: Helping Children Cope with Name Calling, Ridicule, and Verbal Bullying”

AUTHOR & PRESENTER

Judy S. Freedman, L.C.S.W

*October 18, 2007 7:00 to 9:00 P.M.
Gorton Junior High School Auditorium,
69 Draper Avenue, Warwick, RI*

Issues of teasing and bullying are a concern for students, parents, and school personnel. This national expert will discuss ways to deal with the issue to produce a safer learning environment for our youngsters. Teams of parents and educators are encouraged to attend this important program.

*Free to Educators and Parents,
CEUs Pending
R.S.V.P.: Clarette Friedel at 401-528-3694 or clarette.friedel@dcyf.ri.gov*

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES
Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration
Center for Mental Health Services
www.samhsa.gov

Rhode Island Department of Children, Youth & Families